

This 2-day camp will strive to inform children about the lifestyle of people in the early 1900's through a series of hands-on crafts ,chores and heritage demonstrations.

4th annual and improved 2-day program.

Children spend each day dressed in historic costuming, helping with daily chores around the farm.

Baking, and making home make ice cream ,making crafts, and playing old fashioned games.

A wagon ride to the bird sanctuary and pond to catch frogs, snails, and watch the ducks, will make this a fun and educational program kids are sure to remember.

Even a trip to the orchard for some fresh berry picking, try your hand at Scarecrow making

The camp endeavors to instill a sense of pride in one's heritage and knowledge of the life styles of the early Canadians.

As mementos of their experience the children take home picture journals and the crafts they make.

Parents need to provide transportation to and from the Seager Wheeler farm.

The camp is supervised by trained, and first aid certified staff. Costumes, and meals are provided by the Seager Wheeler Farm.
